General Proxy Information

The Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act permits a Proof of Claim to be made by a duly authorized agent of a creditor; however, this does not give such a person power to vote at the First Meeting of Creditors or to act as the proxy of the creditors.

GENERAL

- A creditor may vote either in person or by proxy.
• The Trustee may be appointed as a proxy for any creditor.
• A Corporation may vote by an authorized agent at a meeting of creditors.
• Debtors may not be appointed a proxy to vote at any meeting of their creditors.
• In order for a duly authorized person to have a right to vote, they must be a creditor themselves or be the holder of a properly executed proxy, showing the name of the creditor.

Directions to Completing a Proof of Claim Form

The checklist below is provided to assist in the preparation of a Proof of Claim (Form31) and if required a Proxy (form36). Every creditor who does not prove his claim is not entitled to share in any distribution. Claims not completed correctly in every respect will be returned.

GENERAL

- The signature of a witness is required.
• This document must be signed personally by the person completing the Proof of Claim.
• Give the complete address, including postal code, where any notice or correspondence is to be forwarded.
• The amount on the Statement of Account must correspond with the amount indicated on the Proof of Claim.

PARAGRAPH I

- The creditor must state the full and complete legal name of the company or firm.
• If the individual completing the Proof of Claim is not the creditor himself, he must state his position or title.

PARAGRAPH III

- The Schedule A or Statement of Account must be complete and detailed, showing the date, number and amount of all invoices or charges, together with the date, number and amount of all creditors or payments. A Statement of Account is not complete if it begins with an amount brought forward.

PARAGRAPH IV

- Unsecured creditors must specify if they do or do not have a right to a priority. A schedule must be attached to support the priority claim. Details of Section 136 are available from the trustee upon request
• Secured creditors must attach a certified copy of the security documents to the proof of claim for each claim
• For claims arising from a realization of lease the creditor must provide full details of the claim including the relating calculations
• A claim by a farmer, fisherman or aqua culturist must attach a copy of the sales agreement and delivery documents.

PARAGRAPH V

- All claimants must indicate if they are / are not related to the debtor, as defined in Section 4 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, "If you are related by blood or marriage to the bankrupt, then you should consider yourself to be a related person pursuant to Section 4. If the bankrupt is a corporation, you would be considered to be related to it if you were a shareholder or if your company was controlled by the same shareholders as the bankrupt corporation."

PARAGRAPH VI
